Ref: EON International Corporation adv. SafeComm Products, LLC

Dear Mr. Hawkins,

This letter constitutes a confidential settlement communication protected pursuant to Rule 408 of Federal Rules of Evidence.

This office has been retained by EON International Corporation, Tokyo, Japan, in connection with your company's breach of EON purchase orders nos. SVL-14224, SVL-15158, SVL-16098, SVL-16370, SVL-15171 and SVL-15172, by failing to timely deliver conforming goods. As you know, these orders concerned goods intended for use by first responder agencies in Japan. Those agencies rejected some goods outright as untimely and/or non-conforming, subjecting EON to cancellation charges. Other goods were accepted subject to EON incurring late fee penalties and additional installation, freight, repair, and other charges. As you also know, your failures in this regard caused EON to be barred from further sales to these agencies for a period of two years.

This letter constitutes EON's demand that you promptly remit to this office the sum of US$38,615.50, which sum represents the minimum damages suffered by EON as a result of your actions, as described above; i.e.:

SVL-14244	Non Installation of Communication Equipment Per Order
SVL-15158	Non Installation of Communication Equipment Per Order
SVL-16098	Nonconforming Helmets Received Too Late to Repair/Order Cancelled
	Associated Freight and Cancellation Charges

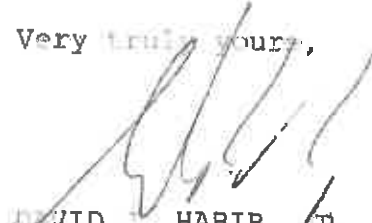

SVL-16370	Associated Late Fee Charge
SVL-15172	Associated Repair Charges
SVL-15171	Refund of Payment by EON to Northwall
	Associated Freight and Repair Charges

Your remittance should be made payable to "David J. Habib Client Trust Account". Wire and/or credit card remittance instructions are available upon request.

If we do not receive the requested payment or a credible commitment and date for receipt of such payment by close of business December 28th, we have been instructed to institute legal proceedings against you for all damages suffered by EON, including consequential damages, and all other amounts allowed by law.

We look forward to receiving a reply at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

DAVID J. HABIB, R.
